Or, what this problem is, watch free video and try it again video ... round and no free video :(Hey. Love this game so much. I don't play games very often and I've never written a game review. Not at all. But I care about this game because I like it and I had tough times going through the first week of playing. I thought it was game that you just couldn't beat the computer, or other (I don't know who I'm playing against). I just found it impossible to win a game. So I suggest to improve it in some way. I was really going to delete the game. But then it got better. I think it was kind of unrealistic. Thank you. Want to have fun? Do you want to relax and enjoy a good game after a long day? Then stay away from this game. This game is cancer! Many bugs, absolutely manipulative it like to pair you with higher power players, so you end up frustrated angry and dishonest!!! I have to spend a good amount of money on this game, buying even the best character, but still the profit rate is completely controlled by the game. Stay away!
